AETNA’S NOTICE DEVELOPMENTS AND REQUEST FOR STATUS CONFERENCE

1. As Aetna previously informed this Court, the United States District Judge in Humble’s Connecticut case against Aetna held a status conference on February 28, 2014 and indicated that she intended to transfer the case to Houston.
2. Aetna filed the attached notice to apprise the Connecticut District Court of the status of this litigation. See Exhibit A, Aetna’s Notice of Developments Since the February 28 hearing.
3. In addition, Aetna recently learned that the owners of Humble have opened another hospital, Westside Surgical Hospital, at the location of the former Twelve Oaks Hospital off the Southwest Freeway. Aetna has reason to believe that Westside is carrying out the same fraudulent scheme as Humble, which includes gouging managed care companies and paying kickbacks to referring physicians.
4. Humble also recently designated new lead counsel, its fourth set in this case.

5. Aetna therefore requests that the Court hold a status conference to further discuss these developments.

Respectfully submitted,
